Planning – Statutory Fees

Planning fees are set nationally by Government. For the latest planning fees please see:

https://ecab.planningportal.co.uk/uploads/english_application_fees.pdf

The new legislation for the change to the planning fees (Town and Country Planning (Fees for Applications, Deemed Applications, Requests and Site Visits) (England) (Amendment) Regulations 2023 (No. 1197) and a Planning Portal document with the forthcoming fees. The legislation also includes a schedule of the new table of scale of fees.

To summarise:

- The new fees are from and including 6th December 2023. The new fee does not affect any application submitted prior to this, however, if the applicant has not yet paid the fee (or cheque cleared) despite submitting the application documents, they will be liable for the higher fee.
- Application fees are increasing by 25% across the board, and 35% for major developments.
- The ‘free go’ is being removed and is no longer an exemption - Revocation of regulation 8 (exemptions – second application relating to development on same site etc.) and Revocation of regulation 9 (exemptions – application following withdrawal of earlier application or refusal of permission etc.). However, the exemption still exists for second applications on previous applications as per 2012 Fees Regulations within the 12-month rule, so these exemptions will phase out over the next year until 5th Dec 2024.
- The relevant period for non-determination for non-major applications is being reduced from 26 weeks to 16 weeks unless an extension of time has been agreed - Amendment of regulation 9A (refund of fees in relation to planning applications not determined within 26 weeks).
- There will be an annual increase of fees (the lower of - index linked or 10%) - New regulation 18A (annual increase of fees).
