I'd like to say a few words regarding your review of the hunters license review. The pub has been my local for over 6 years now, each year getting bigger and better offering a great service for food and drink. The pub does a lot for the community and surrounding areas, charity work etc and promotes a safe family restaurant, as well as a fun and lively bar. There is never any trouble when we go, the staff and management are lovely and go out the way to make sure everything is perfect for the guests.

Thanks
Sam
